Springfield, VA – February 11, 2016, – Versar, Inc. (NYSE MKT: VSR) announced today that it was awarded a $2.4 million firm fixed price contract for construction and engineering activities supporting the Sustainment, Restoration, and Modernization Acquisition Task Order Contract (SATOC) IDIQ with the Air Force Installation Contracting Agency (AFICA), held with joint venture partner, Johnson Controls Federal Systems.

The AFICA SATOC IDIQ primarily serves the United States Air Force Civil Engineering Center (AFCEC) customers, providing a fast track, efficient method for design and execution of all types of facility repairs, renovations and construction.

Tony Otten, CEO of Versar said, “This award is a validation of the team we have formed with our joint venture partner Johnson Controls Federal Systems. We welcome this additional opportunity to work with AFICA and AFCEC and are confident that our team’s unique capabilities can continue to support this critical sustainment, restoration, and modernization program.”
